

End of Year Newsletter

Dear parents and students,

Lost and Found

As this is the final weekend of School we will be placing the Lost and Found box on the table opposite the reception. If you have misplaced or lost anything over the course of this academic year please have a look inside! After this weekend we will be disposing of all the Lost and Found items – if you are not going to be here this weekend please shoot an email to Jacques describing your lost item, if we find an item matching the description we will keep it safe for you over the summer. A photo of the box and some of the items is displayed on the right.

Reading Scheme

Over the past couple of months we have been looking into setting up a reading scheme for our students for use during the summer and also throughout the next academic year. After extensive research, and a parent's recommendation, we have found an app which we feel ticks all the boxes! This is the Joyreader App. We have forged a relationship with the developers and secured a great discount for our parents – 55% off their regular pricing! Please follow this link for further information and to access the purchase form:

Please note this app is not mandatory for our classes, we just feel it is a great resource for parents who want an extra method of engaging their children with the Mandarin language.

Staff Changes

We are very sad to say goodbye to our Finance Officer Rina, who has been with the School for many years. We are currently looking for a part time Finance Officer to support the day to day running of the School – further details can be found on our website.

Teacher Zhou Li and Iris Chi will both also be leaving the School, however we hope to see them back in the near future! Teacher Chi will be acting in a cover teacher capacity next academic year. There are cards at the reception desk if any parents or students wish to leave a message.

World Cup

We understand there will be a lot of buzz this weekend with the finals and third place play-off games. However parents are reminded to collect their children on time from classes over the weekend. Please note we will not be allowing children to leave the premises alone, regardless if it is just to go directly to the pub to meet their parents.

Summer Camps

Today is the final day to book the Hampstead Summer Camp with the Early Bird Discount! All students who attend the camps will receive a free Hua Hsia t-shirt. Our T-shirt is also on sale (£5.00) at reception, you may have seen staff and other students around the School wearing them!

We wish everyone a lovely summer holiday, and look forward to seeing you in September!

Yours Sincerely,
Katja Ting
